Course Details & Outcomes

Course Description

In this course, you will focus on key themes in Korean culture from the pre-modern to the modern periods. It emphasises the relationship between cultural continuity and change and also highlights key areas of debate in Korean studies. The course is structured thematically and chronologically, with topics including Korea's selective adaptation of the 'Chinese model' of governance used in combination with Korean feudal political structures; the role of elite and folk religions such as Buddhism and Shamanism; the emergence of the literati culture, its emphasis on Neo-Confucian cultural orthodoxy and suppression of Buddhism during the Choseon dynasty (1392-1910); the importance of Christianity in social and cultural change in the 19th and 20th centuries and its role in modern Korean nationalism; the impact of Japanese colonialism (1910-1945), the Korean War and division of the peninsula; and contemporary cultural issues of importance such as the role of women, popular nationalism and complex contestations over defining Korea in light of the continued North-South division. The course concludes with a critical examination of evolving conceptions of Korean culture.

Relationship to Other Courses

This course provides a foundation for understanding key themes in the history of Korea from early to contemporary times. It therefore provides a solid grounding for students interested in East Asia and/or history in general and a broader context for other courses focusing on China, Japan, and Korea.

Assessment Details

Critical Reading/Response Exercise

Assessment Overview

Students prepare for 2 subsequent assessments (i.e., individual and group, as below) by responding to questions based on their readings.

Length: 200 words

Feedback via rubric and individual written comments.

Course Learning Outcomes

- CL01 : Understand major continuities and changes that have shaped Korean culture
- CL02 : Understand interactions between native and foreign ideas and their impact on Korean culture as well as representations of Korean culture

Detailed Assessment Description

Students respond to a question on the Readings posted by the Lecturer-in-Charge. This allows the Lecturer-in-Charge to gain a sense of what specific writing/critical reading skills to focus on in later stages of the course to help students for their two larger Assessments (i.e., Critical Bibliography and Group Tutorial Responses). This Assessment and overall approach is influenced by an experiment in two courses in Term 2, 2023, which students overwhelmingly found beneficial as based on student feedback.

AI is not allowed.

Assessment Length

200 words maximum

Submission notes

Assessment information

(1) Additional details on the Assessment will be posted on Moodle. (2) In the early weeks of the course, I will integrate into the Lectures some discussions of the types of things students should think about when doing research (i.e., critical reading, critical thinking, structure, etc.). I started doing this 2 years ago, and it has made a big difference.

KEY GENERAL POINTS The Research Project/Critical Bibliography will be between 1200 and 1500 words in total. 1500 words is the total maximum. That includes EVERYTHING (content, references/bibliography, etc.)

- The Research Project/Critical Bibliography must follow the directions posted on Moodle. The directions will help you to learn how to structure things coherently and to think analytically/critically. Those that do not follow the directions will be marked with a single comment, NFD (Not Follow Directions), and failed. This is not complex, but rather basic stuff along the lines of things that one needs to be able to do to get a job, for instance. In sum, follow the directions, and things will be OK. THE DIRECTIONS ARE THERE TO HELP YOU LEARN.
- Students are encouraged to start thinking of possible research topics as early as possible. The range of topics will be discussed in the early weeks of the term.
- If students have any questions, they must bring those questions to class, either Lecture or Tutorial. I will set aside time for that purpose. If you have a question, raise your hand. Based on concerns raised by students in 2022, I will not respond to last-minute questions by email or questions during flexibility week (week 6). In other words, start working early and get yourselves organized. You will do much better.
- Why a critical bibliography?: Every year, at least one student asks, "how is this different than an annotated bibliography?" Short answer: It is similar to an annotated bibliography, but it is not the same. That is why (1) I have called it a "critical bibliography" and (2) provide instructions on how to do it. Longer answer: there is no possible way to answer this question adequately because there are various subtle variations in annotated bibliographies. So don't waste your time, my time, and your classmates' time on fretting over this question; instead, follow the instructions. You will be much better off if you do. Again, as a guide: in 2022 I had several students comment on how helpful this assessment was in developing in their basic skills.
- Final Point: The use of AI is not permitted on this assessment or any other assessment in this course.

Assignment submission Turnitin type

This assignment is submitted through Turnitin and students do not see Turnitin similarity reports.

Tutorial responses

Assessment Overview

Students work in groups to respond to a set of Tutorial Questions posed by the lecturer-in-charge.

Length: approximately 2,000 words.

Feedback via rubric and group mark.

Course Learning Outcomes

- CL01 : Understand major continuities and changes that have shaped Korean culture
- CL03 : Critically evaluate Korean studies' scholarship and assess areas of debate within the scholarship

Detailed Assessment Description

The Tutorial Groups will submit consolidated Tutorial Responses to weekly Tutorial Questions at the end of the Term, not on a week by week basis. This will be discussed in further detail in Week 1.

Assessment Length

Approximately 2,000 words.

Submission notes

See Moodle.

Assessment information

The Tutorial Groups will submit Tutorial Responses on the questions offered on a weekly basis by other teams in their Tutorial time-slots. This will be discussed in further detail in Week 1.

NOTE #1: For Group Assessment, there is no Special Consideration per se. If a student does not participate in Group Work, I will remove that student from the Group.

NOTE#2: AI is not allowed.

Assignment submission Turnitin type

This assignment is submitted through Turnitin and students do not see Turnitin similarity

Other Useful Information

Academic Information

Due to evolving advice by NSW Health, students must check for updated information regarding online learning for all Arts, Design and Architecture courses this term (via Moodle or course information provided).

Please see: <https://www.unsw.edu.au/arts-design-architecture/student-life/resources-support/protocols-guidelines> for essential student information relating to:

- UNSW and Faculty policies and procedures;
- Student Support Services;
- Dean's List;
- review of results;
- credit transfer;
- cross-institutional study and exchange;
- examination information;
- enrolment information;
- Special Consideration in the event of illness or misadventure;
- student equity and disability;

And other essential academic information.

Academic Honesty and Plagiarism

Plagiarism is using the words or ideas of others and presenting them as your own. It can take many forms, from deliberate cheating to accidentally copying from a source without acknowledgement.

UNSW groups plagiarism into the following categories:

- Copying: Using the same or very similar words to the original text or idea without acknowledging the source or using quotation marks. This includes copying materials, ideas or concepts from a book, article, report or other written document, presentation, composition, artwork, design, drawing, circuitry, computer program or software, website, internet, other electronic resource, or another person's assignment without appropriate acknowledgement.
- Inappropriate paraphrasing: Changing a few words and phrases while mostly retaining the original information, structure and/or progression of ideas of the original without acknowledgement. This also applies in presentations where someone paraphrases another's ideas or words without credit and to piecing together quotes and paraphrases into a new whole, without appropriate referencing.

- Collusion: Working with others but passing off the work as a person's individual work. Collusion also includes providing your work to another student for the purpose of them plagiarising, paying another person to perform an academic task, stealing or acquiring another person's academic work and copying it, offering to complete another person's work or seeking payment for completing academic work.
- Inappropriate citation: Citing sources which have not been read, without acknowledging the "secondary" source from which knowledge of them has been obtained.
- Duplication ("self-plagiarism"): Submitting your own work, in whole or in part, where it has previously been prepared or submitted for another assessment or course at UNSW or another university.

The UNSW Academic Skills support offers resources and individual consultations. Students are also reminded that careful time management is an important part of study. One of the identified causes of plagiarism is poor time management. Students should allow sufficient time for research, drafting and proper referencing of sources in preparing all assessment items. UNSW Library has the ELISE tool available to assist you with your study at UNSW. ELISE is designed to introduce new students to studying at UNSW, but it can also be a great refresher during your study.

Completing the ELISE tutorial and quiz will enable you to:

- analyse topics, plan responses and organise research for academic writing and other assessment tasks
- effectively and efficiently find appropriate information sources and evaluate relevance to your needs
- use and manage information effectively to accomplish a specific purpose
- better manage your time
- understand your rights and responsibilities as a student at UNSW
- be aware of plagiarism, copyright, UNSW Student Code of Conduct and Acceptable Use of UNSW ICT Resources Policy
- be aware of the standards of behaviour expected of everyone in the UNSW community
- locate services and information about UNSW and UNSW Library

Use of AI for assessments

As AI applications continue to develop, and technology rapidly progresses around us, we remain committed to our values around academic integrity at UNSW. Where the use of AI tools, such as ChatGPT, has been permitted by your course convener, they must be properly credited and your submissions must be substantially your own work.

In cases where the use of AI has been prohibited, please respect this and be aware that where unauthorised use is detected, penalties will apply.

Submission of Assessment Tasks

Turnitin Submission

If you encounter a problem when attempting to submit your assignment through Turnitin, please telephone External Support on 9385 3331 or email them on externalteltsupport@unsw.edu.au

Support hours are 8:00am – 10:00pm on weekdays and 9:00am – 5:00pm on weekends (365 days a year). If you are unable to submit your assignment due to a fault with Turnitin, you may apply for an extension, but you must retain your ticket number from External Support (along with any other relevant documents) to include as evidence to support your extension application. If you email External Support, you will automatically receive a ticket number, but if you telephone, you will need to specifically ask for one. Turnitin also provides updates on their system status on Twitter.

Generally, assessment tasks must be submitted electronically via either Turnitin or a Moodle assignment. In instances where this is not possible, alternative submission details will be stated on your course's Moodle site. For information on how to submit assignments online via Moodle: <https://student.unsw.edu.au/how-submit-assignment-moodle>

Late Submission Penalty

UNSW has a standard late submission penalty of:

- 5% per calendar day,
- for all assessments where a penalty applies,
- capped at five calendar days (120 hours) from the assessment deadline, after which a student cannot submit an assessment, and
- no permitted variation.

Students are expected to manage their time to meet deadlines and to request Special Consideration as early as possible before the deadline. Support with Time Management is available here.
